INTRODUCTION

Community Service is one of the implementations of the Tri Dharma of Education which must be carried out by the University. Environmental cleanliness is very important for society, and a clean environment makes students comfortable in their learning activities. Cleaning activities that need to be carried out are cleaning the environment every day and throwing away rubbish in its place. Community Service needs to be carried out to show the university's concern for the surrounding environment. Students at a foundation need to receive attention from all parties, both individuals and groups. The view that social service activities and implementing financial systems from an early age are important and beneficial activities for Nur Mubarak Elementary School students and girls. The view is that providing education about the financial system has an important role in increasing understanding of how to manage the financial system from an early age. Provide an understanding of social service activities in the school environment, as well as provide examples of protecting the school environment by cleaning the school environment. For example, the attention provided is in the form of social service activities so that Yapiska Foundation students know the importance of environmental cleanliness, and provide education about the importance of financial management procedures from an early age. Young people with ideal enthusiasm and motivation need to be involved in development, especially raising environmental awareness, (Syamsu, et al. 2022). Financial management is a group of educational administration substances (Setyowati, Lilis & Machmuddah, Zaky, 2021). It is by knowing good financial management that Yapiska Foundation students are able to manage finances in everyday life. With good financial management, students are able to manage it and avoid being wasteful. The purpose of this service is for general purposes (1) Implementing the Tri Dharma of Higher Education, namely service. (2) Providing education to students regarding procedures for managing finances from an early age at the Yapiska Foundation. (3) Carrying out social service activities by cleaning the school environment and providing cleaning equipment to the Yapiska Foundation. (4) To implement the work program of the Accounting Student Association. (5) Expanding scientific insight regarding the financial system. (6) Provide education regarding the importance of protecting and preserving the surrounding environment.

METHOD

The implementation method is by visiting the Yapiska Foundation by helping clean the environment around the school at the Yapiska Foundation. This is done by inviting students to also participate in cleaning the surrounding environment. Direct socialization was also carried out regarding the implementation of the financial system from an early age. This is done because most of them are female students who still need assistance, by providing socialization and interspersed with games so that the female students are able to understand what has been taught, and so that the female students don't get bored. The location of the Yapiska Foundation is in Tigaraksa, Tangerang. Community service activities were carried out for 1 day, namely August 12 2023, the activities were located at the Yapiska Foundation in Tigaraksa, Tangerang. Community service activities start at 07:30 – 12:00 WIB.
